ConEdison Solutions' experience, stability and integrity in the energy industry are unsurpassed. We have been in business more than 17 years as a subsidiary of Consolidated Edison, Inc. (NYSE: ED), one of the nation's largest energy companies with its corporate history dating back to 1823. ConEdison Solutions is one of the largest retail electricity suppliers in the nation, helping residential customers and businesses meet their financial objectives. *Savings are based upon a comparison of the utility's current residential supply rate and ConEdison Solutions' price for an 8-month fixed price plan in the same NSTAR service territory as of March 2015. All pricing listed in this advertisement and on the website applies to new ConEdison Solutions customers only.
